Reuter has often been abused for the lack of discrimination shown in the selection of news despatched to the Far East, often with only too good cause, but sometimes rather unreasonably. In this instance, however, there cannot be two opinions: the telegram, as of more than ordinary interest in China, should have been forwarded on. We can only conclude that it was omitted by inadvertence, for it could hardly have been intentional, seeing that two other telegrams relating to

The jurors were Messrs. J. F. Schuster, T.

Kerr, E. Pereira, A. E. Abraham, J. D. Woodshop, Hollywood road. He took ever the business a short time ago, including the debts then due to the firm, which were to be collected by him. Amongst them was one of Tis. 169, due by the prisoner. According to the evidence for the prosecution, when he was first asked for the money he said he had not got it then and would pay afterwards, but subsequently he said he had paid it and proanced a book containing what purported to be a receipt for the money bearing the chop of the Leong Shing shop. That stamp, it was said, had been forged, the money never having been paid. For the defence, however, the former owner of the shop was called, and he swore that he saw the presecutor himself put the stamp on the book. He further stated that the accounts between himself and the prosecutor for the Intelligence has been received at St. Peters- | first month of this year, in which this business burg that Mr. Morgan, who was desputched by took place, had never been settled, and that the Royal Geographical Society, has passed he was so dissatisfied with some of the items General on the subject. DICTIONARY. WITH THE PUNTI AND MANDARIN PRONUNCIATION. An Anglo-Chinese Dictionary, published at the Daily Press Office, Hongkong. For comprehensiveness and practical service this Work stands unrivalled. All the new words which the Chinese have to late years been compelled to coin to express the numerous objects in machinery, photography, telegraphy and in science generally, which the rapid advance of foreign relations has imposed upon them, are here given in extenso. Each and every word is fully illustrated and explained, forming exercises for students of a most instructive nature. Both the Court and Punti pronunciations are given the accents being carefully marked on the best FIRE ON TAI INSURANCE COMPANY principle hitherto attained. The typography displays the success of an attempt to make the space, achieving a clearness not previously attained, and dispensing with those vast margins and vacant spaces which have heretofere characteristics.
